

Eagle Days are here again.

The twentieth annual Stockton Lake Eagle Days will be held on January 4th 2014 beginning at 10:00 a.m. Come out and enjoy a boat tour on the lake and experience a view point of the eagles in their natural setting. Warm up and get a little closer to the eagles and come out to the live eagle program and learn more about this magnificent bird.

Boat tours will depart from all three marinas on the lake; Orleans Trail Marina, Stockton State Park Marina, and Mutton Creek Marina. You must preregister for the boat tours by 4:00 p.m. January 3rd.

Dickerson Park Zoo will be conducting eagle programs at the Ray Zumwalt Expo Center in Stockton. The program will feature two live species of eagles, a bald eagle and a golden eagle. The hour long program will begin on the hour starting at 10:00 a.m. and will continue through the day with the last program starting at 2:00p.m. No prior registration is necessary for the zoo's eagle program.

The event is free to the public however a five dollar donation is requested at the marina's to help cover boat fuel costs. For more information about the event and to preregister for the boat tours contact the Stockton Lake Project office at 417-276-3113. Remember to bring your binoculars and cameras and dress accordingly to the forecasted weather. In the case of extreme weather, tune in to KRWP 107.7 F.M. or KTTS 94.7 F.M. for cancellation information.
