

Macon, MO.—The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers at Long Branch Lake announce the 2016 duck blind drawing is scheduled for Saturday September 24th. The drawing will be held at the Long Branch Lake Visitor Center located at 30174 Visitor Center Rd, Macon, Missouri, 63552.

The drawing is for designated sites located at Long Branch Lake with registration from 8:00—8:45 a.m. Drawing will start at 9:00 a.m.

Registrants must be at least 18 years of age and must show current identification, Missouri Small Game Hunting Permit, Missouri Migratory Bird Hunting Permit, and Federal Duck Stamp.

For additional information on the duck blind drawing contact the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Long Branch Lake at 660-385-2108.